A 40 hours Course in:-

Chartered Certificate in Financial Consulting

Accredited by the Institute of Certified Business Consultants ICBC – Canada

A basic understanding of a company's financial statements allows executives and managers to play a full role in shaping its strategy. The course transforms financial and accounting language and concepts into decision-making tools that can be used successfully & daily.

Beginning with the introduction to the fundamental of accounting and finance, participants will benefit from the hybrid of theories and practical approaches to business decisions.

The course is run in both lectures and workshop styles, encouraging active participation in understanding financial statements analysis & reporting as well as financial management, and business decision-making process for the executives and managers.

Program benefits:

Participants acquire a financial outlook from a management perspective, helping them to interpret information and improve decision-making skills. With a strong grasp of the financial aspects, executives can anticipate the consequences of economic changes and successfully confront challenges in the global economy.

Program objectives:

This course is especially designed for middle to senior officers, who are often required to attend meetings or finalize agreements of a commercial nature involving some elements of finance, feasibility studies and insolvency. This course is intended to give participants the following:

Financial Reporting and Analysis: Gain both a basic understanding of financial reporting, as well as the ability to interpret the accounts and financial statements of organizations from a financial analyst point of view.

Quantitative Methods for Investment Management: Get a thorough grounding in essential mathematics and statistics.

Corporate Finance: Learn about the corporate financial structure and instruments used by companies to raise capital and manage financial risk.

International Financial Markets and Institutions: Gain an insight into the economic market and ethical contexts in which financial institutions operate.

Risk Management: Gain a firm understanding of market risk, investment risks, credit risk and also the issues relating to legal, accounting and tax considerations.

Who should attend?

Executives & Managers

Duration of the course:

The duration of the course is 40 hours Time and place to be fixed with clients.